

The background of the entire advertisement is a lush display of various artificial green creepers hanging from above. The leaves are vibrant green and have different shapes, some heart-shaped and some more rounded. They are arranged in several vertical strands, creating a dense, natural-looking effect. At the top, a dark blue rectangular banner contains the brand name in white. Below this, a dark green horizontal band features the product category in large white letters. Underneath that, a light green band contains a descriptive tagline. The bottom of the image is a solid dark green area with a subtle leaf pattern, which serves as the background for the contact information.
